WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

The first meeting of the new Board of Aldermen will be held to-morrow night. Mayor Leslie Sutherland will read his annual message. The Mayor, it is said, will advocate measures leading to the municipal ownership of a point for public lighting. As president of the board, Michael J. Walsh, Alderman from the Fourth Ward, will probably be re-elected. A horse kicked over a lighted lantern in a stable in Valentine's Lane at an early hour yesterday morning, causing a fire. Through the pioneer work of Policemen Horn and Carriages in the stable were rescued. The building is owned by the Lawrence estate.

TUCKAHOE.

Mrs. Emily Sherwood Underhill, wife of Caleb Fowler Underhill, died yesterday at the old Underhill homestead in Tuckahe, in her seventy-fourth year. She was the daughter of Jonathan Sherwood, who was among the early settlers of Tuckahe, forty-five years ago. She was a member of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal Church. The funeral will be at her home to-morrow afternoon.

TARRYTOWN.

Mrs. Cornelia Ward Hall has given $300 to the Tarrytown Hospital as an endowment for a bed for one year.

MEMBER OF 71ST ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

HE PREFERRED DEATH TO INCARCERATION FOR ALLEGED ASSAULT.

Thomas Cleary, a veteran of the war with Spain, who was then and is now a member of Company I, 71st Regiment, attempted suicide by hanging himself in the county jail yesterday morning. Cleary is twenty-two years old. He lives on his father's farm in Purchase. Before the war he was a clerk in a New-York City hotel.

Young Cleary was arrested last week in Mount Vernon, but he was discharged with a reprimand. After drinking a few days later, it is alleged that he had his clothes torn in a fight. He then went home, got a pocketful of money and left town. He returned Saturday night, and started to have a fight, it is said, he was sent to the county jail.

It was about 3 o'clock yesterday morning when the other prisoners called for help. They had seen Cleary remove his suspenders, tie one end around his neck, climb up his cell door, and attach the other end to the overhead bars. He then dropped so that his feet were within two feet of the floor. When the keepers reached Cleary's cell, he was almost unconscious. He was taken down, and restoratives soon brought him around.

When Cleary was able to talk he said: "Let me die. I would rather die than stay here. It is worse than facing bullets on San Juan Hill."

TO CARE FOR CUBAN ORPHANS.

MOVEMENT STARTED TO ERECT AN ASYLUM TO BE CALLED AFTER THE LATE MRS. THURSTON.

A movement for the raising of funds for a proposed memorial orphan asylum for Cuban children which shall bear the name of Mrs. Thurston, the late wife of Senator John M. Thurston, who died soon after a visit which she made to Cuba, was started last night in the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, under the auspices of the Thurston Memorial Association. The name of the proposed asylum is to be the Thurston Home for Orphans and Homeless Children in Cuba, and General Van Vorst, of Nebraska, one of the managers of the Cuban Mail Steamship Company, has offered a tract of ground for the institution.

General Van der Voort and Mrs. G. E. Andrews, of Echo Lake, N. J., were the principal speakers. Mrs. Andrews, who is the wife of a clergyman, conceived the plan. The nucleus of the fund has already been subscribed in Nebraska. It is proposed to carry the work all over the country. The Rev. Dr. T. A. Howland, treasurer of the association, also spoke, and Colonel Hay, one of the officers, said a few words. The Rev. Dr. J. E. Bushnell presided. A collection was taken up, and contributions were handed around upon which a large number of the members of the church pledged themselves to larger amounts. It was announced that many contributions to the fund might be sent to Dr. Howland, at No. 64 Bible House, New-York.

SEA CAPTAIN BELIEVES HE WAS THE MAN WHO APPLIED FOR PASSAGE TO MEXICO.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 3 (Special).—The absconding head of the "Franklin Syndicate," of Brooklyn, the concern which promised to pay $20 per cent a year on deposits, William F. Miller, it is thought, has been seen in Norfolk, and may be here now to escape to a foreign country. That Miller, for whom the police of the entire country are searching, has been here Captain Christophersen, of the Norwegian steamship Fortuna, is positive. A man tallying exactly with the description of the fugitive applied to Captain Christophersen a few days ago for passage to Tampico, Mex., for which port the Fortuna will sail on Tuesday. For prudent reasons the facts were kept quiet until to-day. The captain, supposed to be Miller, came to Lambert's Point. The statement of the Norwegian commander is as follows:

"This man, a well dressed, clean shaven one, and wearing glasses, came to me and said he must go with me to Tampico, either to work his passage or pay, as he said he had plenty of money. I told him he could not go, as we needed no men and did not carry passengers. But I must go," said he. "It's a case of necessity; I'll send my luggage down, and when my ship sails I'll be aboard."

"I did not then know of the 'Franklin syndicate,'" said the captain. "Else I would have detained him. When I came to Norfolk and told some steamship men of the nifty stranger who had accented his English, they showed me a paper in which appeared the syndicate's operations and a picture of the fugitive. Except that this man was clean shaven, he answers the description exactly. I have not seen him since."

Captain Christophersen said he would have the ship thoroughly searched before he started for Tampico, and if the stranger is found aboard he will be turned over to the police. The Norfolk police are crowded and the hum of conversation was to be heard everywhere. Since Mr. Coker's departure a change has been wrought. The rooms have been deserted and the house looks forlorn. Last night there were not a dozen members in the clubhouse. John W. Keller has done his best to keep up interest in the club, but without success. It is plainly apparent that it isn't the social or club life that draws the members to the house, but rather the desire to see the boss and be seen as a mute testimonial of faithfulness.

Charles J. Katenkamp, of No. 233 East One-hundred-and-fourteenth-st., the young man who was arrested on a Broadway car late Saturday night for striking the man who, it is alleged, insulted his woman companion, was fined $5 by Magistrate Deuel in Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday morning.

THESE DOCTORS DISAGREE.

SECRETLY MARRIED ONE ANOTHER AND NOW THE WIFE CANNOT FIND HER HUSBAND.

Secretly married and then left for months by the man in whom she had trusted, Mrs. Mary F. Newcomb, of No. 6 East One-hundred-and-twenty-eighth-st., yesterday made public the wedding which occurred on June 20 last. On September 12, without a word of warning, Dr. Corney suddenly disappeared. To a Tribune reporter Mrs. Corney said yesterday:

"We were both of us doctors by profession, and I met Dr. Corney about a year ago as a fellow practitioner. His name is Robert Blair Corney. Later I met him more often, and as he is a man of many brilliant qualities, I learned to love him. We would have been married last spring had he not said that his parents were adverse to such a thing, because of the difference in our ages. He is twenty-eight and I am thirty-five years old. He said that he feared he suddenly left me and went to Detroit. I joined him there. Later we were married in this city secretly, and he then promised that the announcement of the wedding should be made at the beginning of autumn.

Autumn came and still he refused to have our marriage made public. A little later I learned that there were legal complications, and that he would not permit me to be known as his wife. But he assured me that all would come out right, and I trusted him. A few days later he disappeared. The agency of mind that I have suffered since that time I cannot describe. The real facts I will not give out, as I would rather take all the blame myself. I believe that he is in the city, but whether he will return to me I cannot say."

Mrs. Phoebe A. Corney, the mother of the missing one-hundred-and-thirtieth-st., last night by a Tribune reporter. She is a wife of a contractor. She said: "I do not know where my son Robert is. I have not seen him for months. He is of age, and I suppose he has the right to do what he pleases. I do not know where he is."

UTAH DEMOCRATS STAND BY ROBERTS.

DENIAL OF THE STATEMENT THAT HE HAD BEEN OFFICIALLY REFUTED.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Dec. 3.—A long session of the Executive Committee of the Democratic State Committee last night resulted in the defeat of a proposed resolution, declaring that the committee had not repudiated Roberts, that he was not nominated nor elected by Mormon Church influence, and endorsing the statements of Senator Rawlins, together with his proposed resolution for the Senate.

Evergentle present opposed the resolution. Some members declared that it was proper for Congress to investigate the charge that one of its members was living in polygamy. The following substitute was then adopted, five Gentiles voting against it:

Whereas, It has been represented that the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of Utah at a recent meeting did repudiate the Hon. B. H. Roberts, our duly elected Congressman; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of Utah, that said statement is false, and we solemnly declare that no such action has been taken. Mr. Roberts was nominated and elected by the Democratic party of Utah, and neither the party nor any committee of the party has repudiated Mr. Roberts.

Resolved, by the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of Utah, that said statement is false, and we solemnly declare that no such action has been taken. Mr. Roberts was nominated and elected by the Democratic party of Utah, and neither the party nor any committee of the party has repudiated Mr. Roberts.
